Email from LBI Trustee Pg 2 of 2

Dear Elizabeth Colon Lopez,

I'm an attorney with Hughes Hubbard & Reed. I'm contacting you on behalf of James W. Giddens, Trustee for the Liquidation of Lehman Brothers Inc., to acknowledge that the Trustee has received the claim you submitted and it is being processed. Our preference was to contact you via phone, but we were unable to reach you at the phone number you provided. Given the more than 80,000 claims that have been received, I can't give you a precise timeframe for when your claim will be resolved, but I wanted to email you and provide you with my name and phone number, listed below, as a point of contact as the process goes forward. Additionally, I would like to inform you that you have been sent a Request for Supplemental Information. This document should clearly state the type of information the Trustee would like you to provide, how to provide this information and how to explain why you may not have access to the requested information. If you have any questions related to the claims process (not to the substance, particulars, or merit of your claim) or if you have any questions regarding the Request for Supplemental Information, please feel free to call me. You will receive further contact in writing by mail when your claim is resolved. Thank you for your patience.

Regards,

Michael Sahouri
